

May 27, 2010

ServiceSource Hosts Grand Opening of its New Nashville Office

Mayor Karl Dean will be on hand for Ribbon Cutting

27 May 2010 (SAN FRANCISCO) - ServiceSource®, the technology and market share leader in service revenue performance solutions for technology, healthcare, and life sciences companies, today announced the grand opening of its newest Nashville sales center. ServiceSource, with 2009 revenue of $110 million, has grown in Nashville from 15 employees in 2008 to over 350 today to serve its rapidly expanding customer base. ServiceSource has leased 65,000 square feet and completely renovated its new digs in downtown Nashville into a state of the art center for service revenue performance.

What: Founded in 1999, ServiceSource first opened its doors in Nashville in 2008. As the company has grown, so too has its investment in the city of Nashville. There will be an official ribbon cutting ceremony with Nashville's mayor, Karl Dean and a celebratory Nashville-style barbecue and live music. Mayor Dean will share his vision and strategy for downtown Nashville economic development and discuss how ServiceSource plays an integral part in his plans.

Who: Mayor Dean will be joined by Keith Leimbach, ServiceSource's vice president of the Nashville sales center and ServiceSource clients for the ribbon cutting.

When: Thursday, May 27, 2010 from 4:00 – 7:00 p.m. CT. Official ceremony to begin at 4:00 p.m. CT.

Where: Service Source 201 4th Avenue Nashville, TN 37319